

Welcome to Conquest School

An Independent Special Needs School Where Every Child Shines

Headteacher's Welcome

As Headteacher, I am honoured and delighted to lead Conquest School, a newly established Independent Special Needs School in Boston, Lincolnshire. Our school community is dedicated to valuing, supporting, and encouraging every child so they can reach their fullest potential. Our passionate team prioritises creating a nurturing, inclusive environment that celebrates uniqueness, fosters growth, and helps each child succeed.

We understand that selecting the right school is a significant decision—especially for families of children with additional needs. At Conquest, we strive to build strong partnerships with families and offer a personalised education tailored to each student's strengths and challenges.

I invite you to explore our prospectus and see how our ethos, curriculum, and setting work together to support every child's journey.

Warm regards,

Simon Reynolds - Headteacher

Our Ethos

At Conquest School, we believe that every child deserves an education that celebrates their individuality, nurtures their strengths, and supports their challenges with compassion and expertise. We proudly provide a safe, inclusive, and inspiring environment for children and young people with a variety of learning differences and developmental needs.

We are guided by these principles:

- Each child is unique and capable
- Learning should be personalised, purposeful, and enjoyable
- Emotional wellbeing underpins academic and personal growth
- Families are essential partners in education

Conquest School is a place where children feel understood, supported, and empowered to thrive.

Who We Support

We welcome pupils aged 7-19 with a range of needs, including:

- Autism Spectrum Condition (ASC)
- ADHD and sensory processing differences
- Speech, language, and communication needs
- Social, emotional, and mental health (SEMH) challenges
- Emotional Based School Avoidance (EBSA)
- Moderate learning difficulties
- Other neurodiverse profiles

Our admissions process is collaborative, ensuring we are the right fit for each child and their family.

Our Curriculum

Our curriculum is broad and adaptable, designed to meet individual learning profiles. It includes:

- Core subjects: Literacy, Numeracy, Science
- Life skills: Communication, independence, emotional regulation
- Creative arts: Music, Drama, Art & Design
- Physical development: PE, movement therapy, outdoor play
- Technology: Computing and assistive technology
- Therapeutic support: Speech & language therapy, occupational therapy, counselling

We blend national frameworks, personalised learning plans, and therapeutic approaches to foster meaningful progress for each student.

Our Team

Our multidisciplinary team comprises:

- SEN specialist teachers
- Teaching assistants with therapeutic experience
- On-site therapists and wellbeing practitioners

- SENCOs and pastoral leads
- External professionals for integrated care

Together, we create a nurturing, structured, and responsive environment where every child feels safe and supported.

Our Environment

We design our school to meet sensory and emotional needs, featuring:

- Calm, low-stimulation classrooms
- Sensory rooms and quiet zones
- Outdoor learning spaces and nature trails
- Therapy suites and creative studios
- Accessible facilities and adaptive equipment

We believe the right environment encourages confidence, curiosity, and joy.

Family Partnership

We foster strong, trusting relationships with families by:

- Regular communication and progress reviews
- Collaborative goal-setting and EHCP support
- Parent workshops and community events
- An open-door policy and pastoral care

When families and schools work together, children flourish.

Outcomes & Aspirations

Our pupils leave us with:

- Greater confidence and self-esteem
- Improved communication and social skills
- Academic progress matched to their abilities
- Life skills for independence and wellbeing
- A sense of belonging and pride in themselves

We prepare each child for their next steps—whether into further education, supported employment, or ongoing personal development.
